Dear Sir/ Madam,

Sub: Update on data-theft incident

Further to our intimation filed on November 25, 2024, regarding the data theft incident, we wish to provide an update.

As mentioned in our last intimation, the Company engaged leading information security experts to conduct a comprehensive information security assessment into the data theft incident, along with a compromise assessment of the Company's IT systems. The assessments have now been completed, revealing that the unauthorized exploitation was confined to a specific, identified issue. This issue has since been promptly addressed and remediated.

In response to the incident, the Company has also implemented enhanced security protocols, to further strengthen its IT infrastructure and safeguard customer data.

Based on the current assessment, the Company is of the view that the incident has not resulted in any material adverse impact.

The Company is fully committed to maintaining the highest standards of cyber security and data protection and has instituted several measures that will help strengthen the same.

This disclosure is being made as a matter of good governance and for your information and appropriate dissemination.

Thanking you,

For HDFC Life Insurance Company Limited
